WELCOME TO PORTSMOUTH

THE GREAT WATERFRONT CITY

With world class attractions, spectacular events, a great cultural offer and fabulous places to stay, Portsmouth is a must see destination on England's beautiful south coast.

Enjoy the breath-taking panoramic views of Portsmouth and beyond from the top of the iconic Emirates Spinnaker Tower. Visit Gunwharf Quays to shop at over 90 premium designer outlets and eat at one of 30 cosmopolitan bars and restaurants.

Explore Portsmouth Historic Dockyard including the historic ships Mary Rose, HMS Victory, HMS Warrior 1860 and M.33 along with the National Museum of the Royal Navy.

Don't miss the new D-Day Story museum (opening spring 2018) and nearby Henry VIII's Southsea Castle. Find out more about the city's Sherlock Holmes connections at Portsmouth Museum and visit the house where the great author Charles Dickens was born.

Southsea has something for everyone, from unique independent shops, boutiques and restaurants, to wide open spaces, lush green parks and seafront attractions.

With its narrow cobbled streets and historic fortifications, bustling Camber Dock, Hotwalls Studios, traditional pubs, restaurants, and local fish market, Old Portsmouth is the perfect place for a stroll.

SPORT IN PORTSMOUTH

Portsmouth is a city with a proud sporting heritage, world-class facilities and a calendar of international events – be it road running at the Great South Run, sailing in the Solent or home matches at Portsmouth FC.

GREAT SOUTH RUN

The Great South Run – recognised as the world’s leading 10-mile running event – is a highlight of the city’s sporting calendar. This fast, flat course takes in some of Portsmouth’s best scenery – from the beautiful seafront to Nelson’s iconic HMS Victory. It returns on Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 October.

Other running events include the Coastal Half Marathon, Pretty Muddy, Race for Life and Southsea ParkRun.

ON THE WATER

As the UK’s only island city, Portsmouth is a prime watersports destination.

The Andrew Simpson Watersports Centre is the first port of call for any enthusiast, where you can try sailing, rowing, power boating, kayaking, canoeing and paddle-boarding. It also houses a 13-metre outdoor climbing tower; one for the brave!

BEST FOOT FORWARD

If travelling on foot is more appealing, why not join a regular guided walk? With themes including Authors of Southsea, Pubs of Portsmouth and the Nelson Trail, you’ll become an expert in no time.

Take an urban hike along Portsmouth’s coast for something more athletic. Walk the ramparts behind Castle Field, then visit Southsea Castle and climb to the keep roof. From the castle, follow the Millennium Promenade to the fortifications in Old Portsmouth, where it’s worth climbing atop the Round Tower for majestic harbour views. Alternatively, a white-knuckle abseil down from the Emirates Spinnaker Tower will certainly round off the weekend in style!

PEDAL PORTSMOUTH

Get in the saddle to explore Portsmouth by bike. With miles of dedicated cycle paths, Portsmouth is an amazing city to traverse on two wheels. There is also a growing number of cycling events; check out www.visitportsmouth.co.uk to discover more about these and all city events.

TEeing OFF

Portsmouth boasts two 18-hole golf courses – Portsmouth Golf Centre and Portsmouth Golf Course. Both are available for pay and play, offering outstanding views and affordable sessions on great courses.

GET YOUR SKATES ON

The promenade along Southsea seafront is ideal for in-line and roller skating, whilst the nearby Southsea Skatepark offers international-standard ramps. Enjoy ice skating in front of Portsmouth Guildhall in the run up to Christmas with Skate Portsmouth.

STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

Portsmouth’s Mountbatten Centre is home to an Olympic-sized pool, teaching pool, athletics and cycle tracks, 150-station gym, health suite and an 8-court sports hall. Next door is Portsmouth Tennis Centre with 4 indoor and 6 outdoor courts.

The Pyramids is a characterful centre on the seafront that offers spa facilities, swimming pools, soft play for under 5s, a gym and 60 weekly fitness classes.

OUTDOOR FAMILY FUN

Southsea seafront is hard to beat; with miles of pebble beaches and gigantic green spaces. There’s also tennis, crazy and mini golf, pitch ‘n’ putt and beach volleyball facilities.

The beaches are perfect for a paddle, or you can instead visit the under-8s splash pool opposite the D-Day Story museum, or the water splash at Canoe Lake, for some free fun.

Hilsea Lido offers seasonal outdoor swimming, diving and a splash pool. Dating back to the 1930s, the Lido is found at the beautiful Hilsea Lines.

FABULOUS ART AND CULTURE

From live music to high drama, great events, literary highlights and comedy to make you laugh until it hurts, Portsmouth's cultural programme offers something for everyone.

Bookfest Festival – 12 February – 3 March – offers a range of events including an audience with Peter James, Teddy Bear picnics, writing workshops and Portsmouth Mystery Fest.

In February, a new exhibition opens in Portsmouth Museum, exploring the connection between the city and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's creation – Sherlock Holmes.

The Big Mouth Comedy Festival lands at Portsmouth Guildhall on 10 & 11 March with a line up including Russell Kane, Andy Parsons, Seann Walsh, Paul Zerdin, Alistair McGowan, Tony Robinson, Barry Cryer with Colin Sell, and more.

Emirates Spinnaker Tower, Wedgewood Rooms, the Kings Theatre and New Theatre Royal also offer comedy nights and top acts all year round.

Portsmouth Guildhall's new Comic Con takes place 5 & 6 May, showcasing the best in comic book illustration, TV, film, gaming and pop culture entertainment, and providing fun for aficionados, lifelong fans and families alike.

In December the city offers great Christmas entertainment. A fabulous day out gets even better at the Historic Dockyard's Festival of Christmas. With street markets, live entertainment, Fagin's pub and snow, there's no better way to kick off the festive season!

Enjoy ice skating in front of the impressive Portsmouth Guildhall – on real ice – and relax afterwards in the Alpine Bar. Treat yourself to a traditional pantomime or Christmas Proms at the city's venues.

A NIGHT AT THE THEATRE

Portsmouth is home to two wonderful Matcham theatres offering a range of dramatic live entertainment. The Kings Theatre, with its Italian Renaissance style of decor, plays host to touring West End productions and a varied programme of opera, ballet, comedy, drama and music.

The New Theatre Royal in the heart of the city is home to cutting-edge dance, theatre, drama, music, comedy and children's performances and events.

Groundlings Theatre is an exciting arts venue offering a diverse year round programme.

ARTISTIC LICENCE

Aspex Gallery in Gunwharf Quays presents an outstanding exhibition programme featuring works by contemporary artists from around the world. It's also a great place to see Portsmouth's freshest artistic talent.

Portsmouth Museum is home to fine and decorative art galleries. Spend time visiting the rest of this free museum and enjoy tea and cake in the beautiful gardens.

VIBRANT MUSIC SCENE

Victorious Festival, the UK's biggest metropolitan festival, will return to Southsea Seafront on 24 – 26 August 2018. Having been shortlisted for 'Best Major Festival' at the UK Festival Awards for several years running and with past heavyweight headliners such as Madness, Stereophonics, Elbow and Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds amongst others, the festival continues to grow bigger than ever – making it an unmissable event. Victorious isn't just about the music. Set in a stunning seaside location overlooking the Solent, the festival also plays host to a Champagne Bar in Henry VIII's Castle, a Victorian Bandstand, views of the Spinnaker Tower, a Real Ale Arena, market stalls aplenty, a huge FREE Kids Arena and food from all over the world. For prices and more information please visit www.victoriousfestival.co.uk

The city also boasts great venues. Portsmouth Guildhall has a varied and packed calendar of music from rock and pop to the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. The Wedgewood Rooms and Pyramids Centre also offer gigs and concerts to suit every musical taste.

For full details of Portsmouth's packed music schedule including more outdoor events such as Mutiny Festival and free live music at the Bandstand on Southsea seafront go to www.visitportsmouth.co.uk

ENJOY THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Portsmouth is the UK's only island city, surrounded by miles of coastline and seafront walkways.

SOUTHSEA COMMON

Southsea Common, a 100-acre expanse of grassland, is situated right on the seafront. In summer you can take advantage of the warm weather by packing up a picnic bag and heading down for the day, letting off some steam with a game of rounders, flying a kite, or simply lazing around in the sunshine.

FARLINGTON MARSHES

For nature spotters, there are few better places to catch a glimpse of seabirds than Farlington Marshes. One of The Royal Society of Wildlife Trusts' oldest reserves, this marshland is internationally important for the bird population that it supports—including the sedge, bearded tit and reed warbler. In addition, there are rare and unusual flowering plants on the marshes, such as the sea barley and corky-fruited water dropwort.

HILSEA LINES

This designated 'scheduled monument' is a favourite for walkers, joggers, cyclists, anglers, and nature spotters alike. There are two main walks along the lines, bisected by the Hilsea Lagoon. The more inland stretch, which is predominantly covered by a tree canopy, runs parallel with the old fortifications. On the other side is a walk along the flood defences, which are raised and more open for views.

MOUNTBATTEN CENTRE, ALEXANDRA PARK AND HILSEA BASTION GARDENS

The walking route from Hilsea Bastion Gardens to the Mountbatten Centre is a flat, paved route with parkland on one side and open water along the other. As such it's popular with runners and cyclists alike, offering separate lanes for both. Portsbridge Creek, which separates this route from the M275, is popular with wading birds coming to feed on the exposed mudflats.

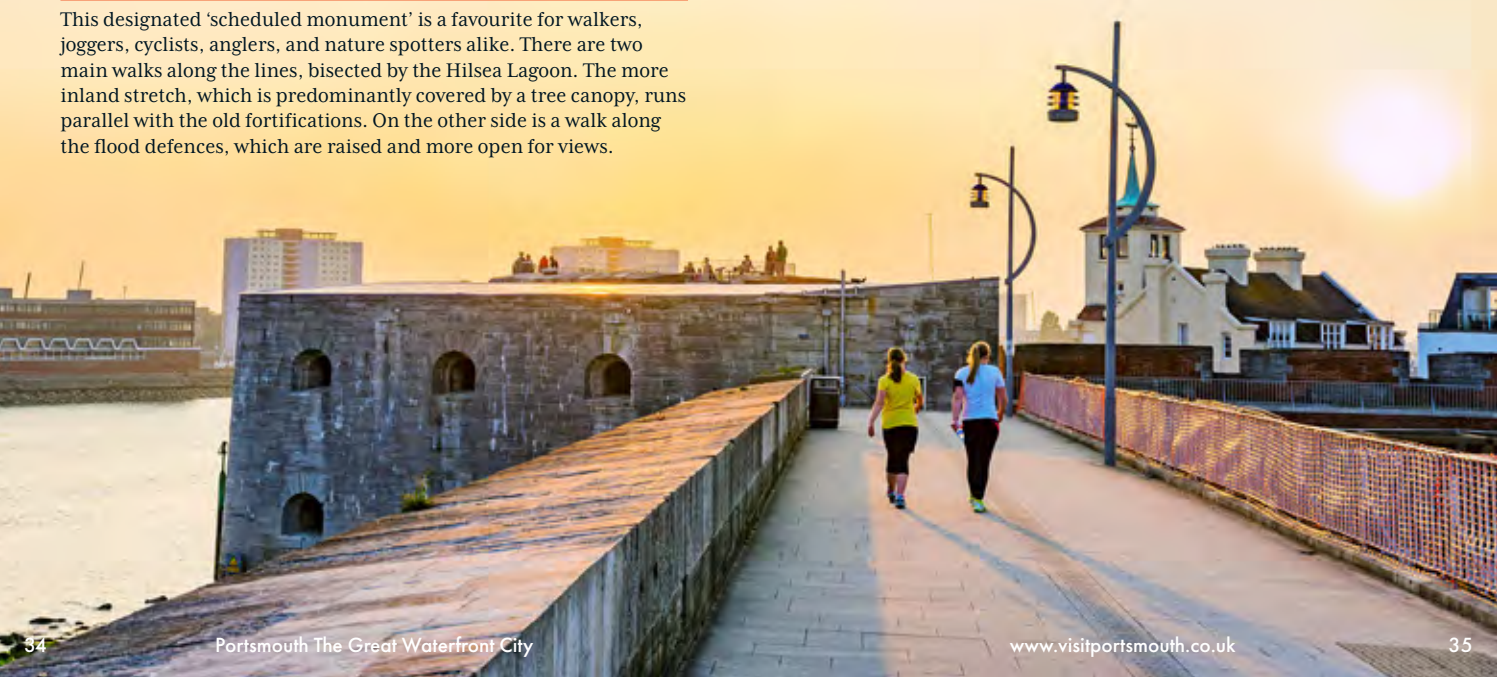

MILTON COMMON

This huge area of land was reclaimed from the sea and has since been allowed to grow into a semi-natural space—meaning it's a slightly more rugged option. The nature on offer at Milton Common also belies its city location. At its peak, the wider area can be home to 6.5% of the entire global population of Brent geese. It's also part of a habitat for in excess of 90,000 waders.

Countless walks and paths criss-cross the common's 113 acres, so it's easy to take a different route with each visit—and have a quiet time when doing so.

SEAFRONT

Around Southsea you have the more commercial coastline, with Clarence Pier amusements and fairground keeping the British seaside tradition alive. Slightly further east and history abounds at Southsea Castle, where Henry VIII watched his beloved Mary Rose sink to the bottom of the Solent. Further along again takes you to quieter, dog-friendly stretches of beach at Eastney.

FRESHWATER BAY, ISLE OF WIGHT

OUT AND ABOUT

Portsmouth is the ideal base to explore England's beautiful south coast.

A short ferry ride across Portsmouth Harbour is Gosport. There you will find the Royal Navy Submarine Museum and Explosion Museum of Naval Firepower.

Visit the Isle of Wight where you will find a wealth of attractions including the famous Carisbrooke Castle and Osborne House, once home to Queen Victoria. With regular hovercraft, catamaran and car ferry sailings with crossing times from only 10 minutes, combining your city break with a visit to the Island couldn't be easier.

Visit SeaCity Museum in Southampton to remember the tragic tale of the Titanic or discover the story of the Spitfire at Solent Sky.

Right on our doorstep is the South Downs National Park, full of fascinating trails to walk or cycle and some great adventure pursuits such as horse riding, hot-air ballooning, golf, hang-gliding and paragliding.

The 140,000 acre New Forest National Park offers a wealth of places to visit and is a haven for cyclists, horse riders and walkers.

West Sussex is rich in history, from impressive castles, historic houses, racing and museums to suit all interests to the city of Chichester with its Roman roots and palace at Fishbourne.

In Winchester, visit King Arthur's legendary round table and the ancient Winchester Cathedral, the burial place of Jane Austen. Nearby Marwell Zoo is inhabited by more than 250 exotic and endangered species.

London is just 90 minutes away by train or coach, it couldn't be easier to take a day trip to the capital.

What's on the cover?

View of Portsmouth—illustrated by local artist Dave Thompson

Influenced by the classic era of 1950s poster design and the artists famous for creating the travel posters for the London Underground, Dave knows how to capture a mood with his images that depict key sites in the island city he calls home.

The cover image is available for sale on a range of gifts. Visit one of our Waterfront Gifts shops or contact tourism@portsmouthcc.gov.uk for more information including mail order details.
